

Polar Express at the Chatsworth Depot

December 3rd, 12:00-4:00 pm

The Whitfield-Murray Historical Society is proud to announce The Polar Express is coming to the Chatsworth Depot on Saturday, December 3rd. The Depot's Big Blue Train will take riders to visit Santa at the Wright Hotel. Dramatic readings of the book, THE POLAR EXPRESS, by local retired educator C. L. Dunn, will take place inside the depot on each half hour. Both the Chatsworth Train Depot and the Wright Hotel will be decorated for the Christmas Holidays and open for tours.

Highlighting the afternoon will be model trains set up and running in the former freight room of the depot. Local train enthusiasts Ted Yarbrough and Robert Caffee will provide operating trains while other members of the Society will be on hand to give tours of the depot and the hotel. The Hotel's Keith Store exhibit will again be open along with other displays.

Refreshments will be served by Friends of the Chatsworth-Murray County Library. The event is free for children 10 and under (must be accompanied by a paid adult), but a $3 donation for those ages 11 and up is requested for admission. Big Blue Train rides to see Santa are free, but donations are always appreciated. The event is co-sponsored by Friends of the Chatsworth-Murray County Library.
